

National Capital Region Substance Use Disorder Symposium

The Lifecycle of the Patient with a Substance Use Disorder: ER to Admission to Discharge

Virtual Workshop via Adobe Connect

September 22, 2021

Time: 1300-1630

Agenda:

1300-1315: Introduction to Workshop - Dr. Harold Wain

1. Appreciating the significance of the Biopsychosocial approach for the patient with a substance use disorder
2. Recognizing the Meaning of Being a Patient with “Cerebral Chaos”
3. Appreciate the concept of Denial by patient, family and even medical personnel.

1315-1345: Initial Evaluation in the Emergency Room with a BIOPSCHOSOCIAL Approach - Dr. Shannon Ford

1. Understand how the patient with a substance abuse disorder utilizes emergency services and how to identify them
2. Be able to complete an initial BIOPSCHOSOCIAL evaluation of the patient with a substance use disorder patient in the ER
3. Learn what tools are available for brief interventions by BH in the ER for the patient with a substance use disorder

1345-1420: The Patient in the ICU - Dr. Jessica Bunin

1. Recognize the need for Intensive Care management in a patient presenting with a substance use disorder
2. Compare and contrast signs and symptoms related to substance use/withdrawal from symptoms of a general medical condition.
3. Recognize the impact of a Biopsychosocial approach in the ICU for a patient with a substance use disorder

1420-1435: Break

1435-1505: Medical complications and Inpatient treatment with a Biopsychosocial Approach - Dr. Rohul Amin

1. Describe medical complications associated with substance use that are commonly seen in a hospitalized patient
2. Discuss strategies for effect multidisciplinary communication regarding a patient with substance abuse disorders on the general medical ward.
3. Determine appropriate level of care needed based on ASAM criteria.
4. Describe patient care in a residential treatment facility

1505-1530: Interventional and emerging treatments for substance use disorders to include TMS and MDMA - Dr. Christopher Hines

1. Participant will have an understanding of interventional treatments for substance abuse and will gain an understanding for the use of Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation (TMS) and MDMA and their mechanism of action in the brain.

2. Participant will have a working knowledge of the budding research regarding TMS and MDMA effects in substance use disorders

1530-1545: Use of ECT, and Ketamine with a patient with a substance use disorder-
Dr. Enoch Barrios

1. Recognize the prevalence of mental co-morbidity (Depression and Anxiety) and its impact on individuals with Dx of a substance use disorder
2. List the Care and Alternative strategies for management of co-morbidity of Mental Illness

1545-1600: Combining it all together - Dr. Harold Wain

1. Maintaining Therapeutic Alliance and Provider Biases
2. Recognizing biases and counter transference issues

1600-1630: Panel discussion and discharge from the Hospital